Beginning in November of 2023, the state setoff program will move from the Department of Administrative Services to the Department of Revenue. The setoff program allows IDR to intercept state payments, like a tax refund, to pay debts owed to a state agency, municipality, or other government entity. Taxpayers who have had their payments setoff may challenge the setoff by submitting a challenge to IDR. Additionally, a co-payer may request for a division of the payment subject to setoff. Taxpayers subject to setoff will be notified and the challenge or debt-split process will be described in the notice.
• Individual can’t see debt in GCI
• No longer able to file married filing separately, unless the same filing status is used for federal purposes
